In a letter from one of our old regulars, Mr S Will, Plattsmouth, Neb., he says "we couldn't do without the Recorder as it gives all the news of my old home." Mr Will until recently lived in Mynard, Neb.

Dental Notice—I will be at the following places on date of notice: Crabtown, May 7th to 11th; McDowell, May 21st to 28th; Doe Hill, May 27th to June 2d.

O J Campbell

It is very gratifying to us to receive so many complimentary letters from our numerous subscribers each week. An editor likes to know his efforts are being appreciated.

Forty-five years ago Wednesday since the battle of McDowell. Many of our old soldiers remember this occasion very distinctly, and a number of them can give a minute description of it.

Messrs W H Vance and J E Vance were in Monterey Monday, on their way to West Va. with a drove of cattle.

The rainy days have brought delay and his disappointment to the corn-planter and the gardener.

Richard Crummett, who has been right ill for a week or more, is now able to leave his room.

Mr Joseph Hiner has a force of men at work on the S. and P. turnpike.

We are in receipt of a letter this week from a Highland boy, Mr W C Rogers, 1931 Russell Street, South Berkeley, Cal. He says he likes it fine out there and all he lacked was the Highland Recorder, so it is with pleasure that we start the paper at once.

Miss Sadie Rexrode, of Strait Creek, left this week for New York, and will, in a few days, sail for the Congo Free State as a missionary. Highland already has one worker in the Congo, which will make it a field of special interest to us.

The "showers," called for by the weather man last Wednesday, proved to be a gully washer, and planting received another long back set.

Father, dear father, come home with me now, and tight on my arm get a grip; the sidewalk is broken, the night is so dark, and into a hole you may slip. Father, dear father come home with me now, if you don't your red blood may be split; with the eyes of a tater you wouldn't be safe—if you travel down town you'll be killed.

Mr J Wesley Hever, accompanied by his daughters Miss Clemmie and Laura, and sons Robt. and Will, of Hightown, were in town Wednesday trading at the stores.

Mr Geo M Life, a former Highland-r. now of Reece, Kan., says "I do not know what I would do without your valuable paper." Mr Life left this county some years ago and still has a warm place in his heart for his old home.

Deaths

News of the death of Mrs Annie E Taylor, at her home, Jamesville, Ill., was received by friends and relatives of Highland last week. She was a daughter, and only child, of the late David Gwin, of Jackson River. She was thrice married, and, for many years, resided at the old Gwin homestead, near Bolar, now owned by Mr M F Wiley.

Mr Martin Dever, a native of Highland, but for several years an inmate of the Western State Hospital, died at that institution on Saturday morning last. His remains were brought home, and, on Monday, interred at Green Hill cemetery, religious services being conducted by Rev A Q Flaherty.

Trout Fishing

Lovers of sport, particularly those of a piscatorial bent, have been improving the time since May first. Among those who have been successfully casting the fly we mention Messrs T R and C P Jones, C T Fleisher, J A Whitelaw, V B Bishop and Dr Powers. None have "reported" any catch, but we have heard of some fine specimens being brought to town—one, at least, measuring 16 inches, and others 12 and 13. These came from the South Branch, near the line of the two States. We have heard no reports from Jackson's River. With no serious obstructions in the way, and in consequence of so much high water last season, one would reasonably expect to find trout more plentiful up stream.

There are from three to six non-ogenerians living in Highland, and for their special benefit we call attention to a very unusual reunion and marriage celebration to take place Aug. 26, near Tatesville, Tenn.

John B Brundon, aged 101 and rich, will, on that date, wed Miss Rose McGuire, that being her 100th birthday. They were sweethearts in the 20's of the last century and their marriage was prevented by her parents. The McGuires went to Europe and Brandon to California. Recently he returned to Tennessee and purchased his and her old homes. He arranged for a reunion of nonogenerians and centenarians for the present summer, inviting all in the United States and other countries to attend at his expense. The old sweetheart heard of this, replied, and the wedding set for her birthday promises to be the leading feature of the novel reunion. He leaves for Europe about June 1st, and five others besides the bride-elect will accompany them on their return, all being over 90 years of age.

Brandon says he wants all the old boys and girls to come, whether 100 or 1,000, and to feel free to apply to him for all expenses. Persons desiring to attend are requested to address him at 3430 Evades avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent development of fatal disease if taken in time. K. H. Trimble.

Supervisors Meet

At the last meeting of the Board of Supervisors the following business was passed upon:

Upon application viewers were appointed to view and locate certain changes proposed to be made in the public road between the Staunton and Parkersburg turnpike, near sulphur spring, two miles west of McDowell and the point where the Davis road intersects the Bullpasture river road on top of Eagle Hill, and were requested to report at next meeting.
